MISSOURI

Words and Music by ALFRED G. ROBYN

(Martial)

1 There's a Land out West, that we all love best, Where the 2 In that far-off day Dan-i-el Boon they say, Said: "At "Show-me's" were born and bred, And it's proud in-deed, we are, And we'll last I have found God's Land. This is Par-a-dise in-deed, Where the tell it near and far, That for Lib-er-ty and Law, she's al-ways led. See! her Soul of man is freed, Where the feet of hon-est men may al-ways stand." Thus his ban-ner is un-furled! And we'll tell it to the world vi-sion scanned it all. And the world has heard his call! O Miss-

CHORUS

-ou-ri, Miss - ou-ri, Of all the States the best, We are hon-ored when we love and hon-or you, Great Em-pire of the West, O Miss-

-ou-ri, Miss - ou-ri Un - i - ted here we Stand, In loy-al-ty we're proud to be thy Sons, O glor-ious Land! O Miss - Land!
